

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Start small...go far with Dakota College at Bottineau.

Associate programs are typically two-year degrees designed for students who plan to transfer in the future. It is important for students to communicate with their advisor about future academic plans in order to ensure academic success. If you have previously attended college, you will need to request transcripts to be sent to Dakota College at Bottineau because some of your courses might count towards your degree.

Why study to earn your Early Childhood Education degree?

DCB's Associate of Arts (AA) in Early Childhood Education program prepares individuals to transfer to a four-year college/university. This program requires students to complete 40 credits of general education classes as well as 23 credits of core classes for early childhood education.

This degree is targeted for those who are interested in a career working with children from birth to age six. This degree allows opportunity for employment within early childhood, daycare, and preschool settings.

Career choices

Professionals with their Early Childhood Education AA degree who transfer on and complete a bachelors and/or masters can have a variety of rewarding careers in the education field, including:

- Preschool teacher
- Childcare director
- Teacher assistant
- Personal care aid
