\[ 90-100 = A \quad 80-89 = B \quad 70-79 = C \quad 65-69 = D \quad <65 = F \]

Tentative Course Outline: Through this course you will learn how to create publications that are useful for school, personal and business purposes from templates provided by Microsoft Publisher 2010 and from scratch. The textbook will provide guided tutorials to develop your skills as a desktop publishing professional. The course will cover an introduction to Office 2010 and Windows 7 and applications using Microsoft® Publisher to create a flyer, a trifold brochure, a newsletter, a publication from scratch, business information sets, Publisher tables and how to use advanced formatting options.

Relationship to Campus Theme: Dakota College at Bottineau emphasizes nature, technology and beyond as a focus for the unique blend of courses and programs offered here. This course will emphasize the use of technology and prepare students for the future use of computers, hardware and software.

Classroom Policies:
- Assignments: All assignments are due on the specified due date by 11:55pm CST. All assignments are due before the final project is completed. Make sure your name and assignment appear in the filename of your document. For example, Ch1Lab1ERodacker. Zipped folder names should be named similar to: Lesson3ERodacker. Follow the instructions provided for submitting assignments. Late work will incur point deductions: 10 points for each day it is late. Any assignment turned after 3 days late results in a 0. You are permitted to work ahead.

- Academic Integrity: Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on exam, paper or project; failure in course; and/or expulsion from the university. For more information, refer to the “Academic Dishonesty” policy in the university catalog or the student handbook online: http://www.dakotacollege.edu/pdf/studenthandbook.pdf

Student Email Policy: Dakota College at Bottineau is increasingly dependent upon email as an official form of communication. A student’s campus-assigned email address will be the only one recognized by the campus for official mailings. The liability for missing or not acting upon important information conveyed via campus email rests with the student.

Disabilities and Special Needs: If you need any special accommodations or materials in alternative formats, please let me know immediately. If you have already met with Student Development personnel, please provide me with information regarding your needs as soon as possible so that I can make appropriate accommodations.
