

Course Prefix/Number/Title:

FREN 101

First Year French I

4 credits

Course Description:

Introduction to listening, speaking, reading and culture of the French-speaking people. This course focuses on the development of elementary linguistic skills while introducing students to the richness and diversity of the French world. French 101 is a web enhanced course. Le blog de... features four Parisian characters with different French backgrounds. The Video Program features the same four characters in Le blog de... filmed to show different aspects of life in France, Martinique, Morocco, and Canada. The online Learning Center www.mhhe.com/visavis5 offers links to sites throughout the French world.

Course Objectives:

Attain a basic competency in all four language skills; listening, speaking, writing, reading and culture. Learn vocabulary, basic grammatical structure, useful sentences related to the daily life such as introducing and describing self and others.

Converse and write in simple but correct French. Read and understand simple French texts available in the textbook. Describe people using a variety of adjectives. Express likes and dislikes, knowledge of French culture and civilization and the French world.

These outcomes are aligned with the Foreign Language Assessment Plan Student Learning.

ND State Standards for 8.12 Foreign Language; 8.12.1 study designed to develop skill in the target language.

ACTFL Five Cs: #1 Language, #2 Cultures, #3 Comparisons

Professional standards published by the American Council of Teachers of Foreign Language (ACTFL) for language proficiency.

As per alignment with the goals stated in the Foreign Language Assessment Plan, this course is intended: 1) to provide quality training in French language acquisition and 2) to inspire critical and creative thinking about diverse cultural legacies of French speaking communities.

+Technology

Goal 2

Objective 2: French 101 is a web enhanced course. Le blog de ... features four Parisian characters with different Francophone backgrounds. The Video Program features the same four characters in Le blog de ... filmed to show different aspects of France, Martinique, Morocco, and Canada. The online Learning Center www.mhh.com/visavis5 offers links to sites throughout the Francophone world. Four videos "The French Experience" will be shown.

+Beyond

Goal 4

Objective 5: This course presents language as a skill to be acquired and practiced for effective communication, as an object of analysis in its own right, and as a medium through which the life, society and culture of the target language country can be explored beyond college.

Homework and Grading Policy

To access the Vis-à-vis webpage: www.mhhe.com/visavis5 for weekly homework>Student Edition>Choose a chapitre.

Each week, do all the quizzes on the above Vis-à-vis website for (1) “Paroles,” (2) “Structures,” (3) “A l’écoute sur Internet” and (4) More Resources “On est connectés.”

(The Audio Program>Textbook Audio>Prononcez bien! And Vocabulaire are very strongly suggested for the student to review for pronunciation techniques but don’t require quizzes.)

At the end of each of the four assignments for each chapter send the quiz results by email (html) to Linda.Grover@dakotacollege.edu due by each Wednesday at midnight. Quizzes are docked 10 points for each class-day late (by Thursday, 10 points are subtracted from combined quiz score; by Monday 20 points; by Tuesday by 30 points, etc.)

Total of points for grading:

900-1000 points	=A
800-899 points	=B
700-799 points	=C
600-699 points	=D
Below 600	=F

Class participation	25%
Points from homework and Mid-Term and Final	75%

Classroom Policies:

Reading the assigned material is the student’s responsibility and should be read before class time. Assignments are due on time and for late assignments, points are subtracted as outlined above. Class participation is essential because the student is expected to speak the foreign language as much as possible. Please arrange with the instructor first if the student will be absent from class. Any particular needs should be discussed with the instructor.

Hand-held electronics:

Absolutely no hand-held electronics are allowed in class.
