Course Requirements:

1. Completion of assignments, tests, and presenting the final paper are required.
2. Everyone will complete a final research paper or project based upon a Human Relations topic. This paper should consist of a high-quality report, approximately 5–7 pages in length, including a cover page and reference page. Select a current topic, concept, or program addressed in this course. You must use at least three references, one of which may be the textbook. Grading will be on such factors as applicability, effectiveness, and quality. In addition to the written paper, you will give a 5-10 minute overview of your paper to the class. The presentation is not graded; however, you must complete the presentation.
3. Grading is the accumulation of assignments, quizzes, and tests for total points.

Relationship to Campus Theme: Dakota College at Bottineau emphasizes nature, technology, and beyond as a focus for the unique blend of courses and programs offered here. This course will emphasize communications and the diverse makeup of the business community, which enhances the “Human” nature.

Classroom Policies:

Missed Classes: Attendance is expected. Unannounced quizzes, tests, and class projects can be made-up only when the instructor excuses students prior to class. You are responsible for the activities of each class period. If you know of a conflict ahead of time, you are welcome to submit assignments early. Recognizing the importance of student participation and interaction with classmates, excessive absences necessitate failure in the class.

Assignments: All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date due unless specified prior. Late assignments receive one-half credit minus errors. All late assignments are due before the final examination is administered. Make sure the class name, your name, date due, and exercise number appear in the upper-right corner. If handing in multiple pages, sequence them according to the order in the exercise, and staple in the upper left corner.

Electronic Devices: Turn off or mute cellular phones and pagers; prior permission for computer use is required. I will have my cell phone on for campus emergency notifications.

Academic Integrity: Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on exam, paper or project; failure in course; and/or expulsion from the university. For more information, refer to the "Academic Dishonesty" policy in the university catalog or the student handbook online: <http://www.dakotacollege.edu/pdf/StudentHandbook08-09.pdf>

FYE GOALS: The First-Year Experience (FYE) at Minot State University is an opportunity for you to participate in a learning experience that will initiate and ease your transition to university life and learning through unique learning communities, peer mentors, and opportunities to engage with the campus and larger community. Mr. Matthews, Mr. Gagnon, and I will work together with you to meet the FYE Goals through the activities and assignments in our courses, and as a result, enhance your likelihood of success as a first-year student and better prepare you for your studies in subsequent semesters.

Goal 1: To connect you to your peers and faculty members.

Goal 2: To engage you with the campus and larger community.

Goal 3: To enhance your sense of belonging at MSU.

Goal 4: To communicate and facilitate your understanding of the academic expectations of the university.

Goal 5: To enhance your competency in some of the following skills and capacities:

- written and oral communication
- critical thinking
- critical reading
- collaboration
- information literacy
- quantitative literacy
- problem solving.

Drop Policy: This course is part of a three course first-year learning community. These three courses are linked and must be taken together. If you decide to drop one of these classes, you will be required to drop all three. You will need to obtain a permission code from your INT 299 instructor and will be required to meet with your instructors prior to receiving this code. Dropping these courses could have significant impact on your student record and financial aid. It is also recommended, prior to dropping, you consult with the financial aid office.

In coordination with the Disability Support Service, reasonable accommodations will be provided for qualified students with disabilities (LD, Orthopedic, Hearing, Visual, Speech, Psychological, ADD/ADHD, Health Related & Other). Please meet with the instructor during the first week of class to make arrangements. Accommodations and alternative format print materials (large print, audio, disk or Braille) are available through the Disability Support Service, located on campus in the lower level of Lura Manor, or by calling 701-858-3371 or by e-mail at evelyn.klimpel@minotstateu.edu.
