Course Requirements:

1. Completion of assignments, tests, and presenting the final paper are required.
2. Everyone will complete a final research paper or project based upon a Human Relations topic. This paper should consist of a high-quality report, approximately 5–7 pages in length, including a cover page and reference page. Select a current topic, concept, or program addressed in this course. You must use at least three references, one of which may be the textbook. Grading will be on such factors as applicability, effectiveness, and quality. In addition to the written paper, you will give a 5-10 minute overview of your paper to the class. The presentation is not graded; however, you must complete the presentation.
3. Grading is the accumulation of assignments, quizzes, and tests for total points.

Classroom Policies:

Missed Classes: Attendance is expected. Unannounced quizzes, tests, and class projects can be made-up only when the instructor excuses students prior to class. You are responsible for the activities of each class period. If you know of a conflict ahead of time, you are welcome to submit assignments early. Recognizing the importance of student participation and interaction with classmates, excessive absences necessitate failure in the class.

Assignments: All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date due unless specified prior. Late assignments receive one-half credit minus errors. All late assignments are due before the final examination is administered. Make sure the class name, your name, date due, and exercise number appear in the upper-right corner. If handing in multiple pages, sequence them according to the order in the exercise, and staple in the upper left corner.

Electronic Devices: Turn off or mute cellular phones and pagers; prior permission for computer use is required. I will have my cell phone on for campus emergency notifications.

Academic Integrity: Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on exam, paper or project; failure in course; and/or expulsion from the university. For more information, refer to the "Academic Dishonesty" policy in the university catalog or the student handbook online: <http://www.msub.edu/pdf/StudentHandbook08-09.pdf>

Disabilities and Special Needs: If you have any condition, such as a physical or learning disability, for which you need extra assistance, please see me immediately. If you have already met with Student Development personnel, please provide me with information regarding your special needs as soon as possible so that I can make appropriate accommodations.
