

Dakota College Course Syllabus

Course Prefix/Number/Title:

HIST 103H – United States History until 1877

Number of Credits:

1 Credit

Course Description:

This class will explore the major themes in the political, social, technological and cultural development of the United States from pre-Columbian times to the formal end of the Reconstruction period in 1877. This class is partnered with HIST 103 and integrates additional primary source readings and assignments in this honors section. Active student discussion based on these readings is also an important portion of this class.

Pre-/Co-Requisites:

HIST 103 – United States History until 1877

Course Objectives:

First, the student will have an accurate understanding of the forces leading up to and results from this historical era. Secondly, the student will be able to identify the key figures and influential actions made. Finally, the student will also have a greater knowledge of not only this time period, but how the study of history is directly related to almost every other discipline within a college course catalog.

Various Handouts

Course Requirements:

The formula for grades is as follows.

3 exams (non-cumulative), 40 pts. each = 120 pts.
10 quizzes/class participation, 2 pts. each = 20 pts.
2 essays (details to follow), 30 pts. each = 60 pts.

Total pts. available = 200 pts.

This Honors section is only available in an S/U grading format. Earning 70% of the available points is necessary for a passing grade.

70-100% - 140-200pts. = S
<69.99% - <139pts. = U

No Incompletes will be given.

Exams will be multiple choice and essay format. They are not cumulative. Closed book and notes. The final exam will not be given early.

Quizzes will be 2 questions and given randomly. They cannot be made up under any circumstances. They cover material in that week's reading and are short answer in form. Class discussions may also be counted as quiz points based on participation.

The 2 essays are thesis-based, 3000 words at a minimum and written in Chicago Style format. These essays are longer than the standard HIST 103 requirements, but will be used in the grading formula for that class as well.

This class meets only once per week, therefore it is highly recommended that the student finishes the reading assignment before that class meets, as well as keeping absences to a minimum.

General Education Goals/Objectives

Goal 6: Demonstrates the knowledge of the human experience throughout history

Objective 3: Recognizes human social structures

Skill 2: Demonstrates, through historical examples, what happens when differing social structures collide

Relationship to Campus Theme:

A focus on the interaction between natural resources and the development of the United States. Discovering how technological developments have affected the history of the American population. Reviewing the political process of the United States and reflecting on how future events hinge on current decisions.

Classroom Policies:

Reading the assigned text is the student's responsibility, and is essential to success in this course. It should be noted though that it is in your best academic interest to read material before the week of lecture/discussion as to aid in your understanding. Any deadlines are final and your work is due on the day specified (11:59:59 PM). Any late work will not be accepted for full credit.

Please refrain from doing anything that might be disruptive and disturb other students or the instructor, such as chronically arriving late, leaving early, talking with neighbors, using a cell phone or texting. Turn all electronic junk off. This class does not require the use of a laptop computer, therefore they are not allowed to be operated in lecture periods.

This academic environment is an open and harassment free one. Participation within the classroom is highly encouraged and is an integral part of the higher education experience. Ask questions – comment on discussions.

Academic Integrity:

Webster's Encyclopedic Unabridged Dictionary defines plagiarism as: "The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work." There will be zero tolerance of any form of academic dishonesty. If any evidence appears of students not doing their own work, plagiarism, or outright cheating on quizzes/exams, the matter will be investigated. If it is concluded that such dishonesty occurred, the student in question will receive an automatic "F" for the course. Furthermore, the matter will be reported to the appropriate university office and the instructor will participate in any proceedings against the guilty party.

Disabilities and Special Needs:

Please inform the instructor within the first week of classes if any assistance is required due to disabilities or special needs.
