Dakota College at Bottineau Course Syllabus

Course Prefix/Number/Title:
HORT 296 Field Studies
1-3 credits fall or spring semester

Course Description:
Field Studies is a practical field experience in horticulture designed to provide students with the opportunity to investigate and research a horticulture related topic of interest to the student.

Course Objectives:
Students will choose their own topic, prepare greenhouse space for the project, start the plants and grow them out to a finished product.
Students will keep a journal and write a paper summarizing t he project.

Instructor:
Diann Beckman

Office:
Molberg Rm. 20

Office Hours:
Fall MWF 1:00 – 2:00, 10:00 – 12:00 TH
Spring MWF 10:00 – 11:00
Other hours by appointment

Phone:
701-228-5442

Email:
diann.beckman@dakotacollege.edu

Lecture/Lab Schedule:
By arrangement

Course Requirements:
Students will communicate on a daily basis, the progress and condition of the project.
Students must be self motivated to make this project work.

Tentative Course Outline:
Students will begin the project the first week of the semester and keep it going until the crop or project is finished.
Students will be graded accordingly;
75% field experience hours/research project and final paper.
25% communication with instructor monitoring any problems and fielding questions.

Classroom Policies:
This is an independent project. You will be working alone through much of the project.
If you have problems or questions, I will be available to help you.

Disabilities and Special Needs:
Please notify me within the first week of class of any needs due to disabilities or special needs