

Sheila Braaten
701.776.5095
sheila.braaten@dakotacollege.edu

Education

North Dakota State University (NDSU) – Fargo, ND December 1994
Bachelor of Science, Crop and Weed Science Major (Weed Science Option)

UND Lake Region – Devils Lake, ND 1991 – 1992
Ag Transfer

Teaching Experience

Farm Management Instructor, Dakota College at Bottineau March 2018 - present
Farm/Ranch Business Management (AGRI 242)

Work Experience

Professional Agronomy Consultant 2016 – present
True Balance, LLC. (Manager and co-owner)
Non-traditional soil sampling utilizing resin membrane technology that measures plant available nutrients.
The interactive results incorporate agronomics and economics into the final recommendation.

Agronomy Consultant 2013 – 2016
Babco Soil Services, ND

Agronomist/Seed Manager 1997 – 2013
Envision (Farmers Union Oil Co. of Rugby, Towner, Wolford and Leeds, ND).
Duties included seed, chemical and fertilizer sales, soybean seed treating, soil sampling, farm plans and budgeting, seed and chemical inventory, and seed, chemical and fertilizer recommendations.