RequiredTextbook:

Retailing Management 10th Edition—Levy and Weitz ISBN 9781260277081

Available from the DCB bookstore—701-228-5458 or email bookstore@dakotacollege.edu

Course Requirements:

Completion of assignments, tests (open book/notes), class attendance and class participation (discussion). Attendance is required. All assignment will be submitted in Blackboard. Tests will be administered in Blackboard.

Grading is the accumulation of attendance, assignments, quizzes, and tests for total points.

Grades will be calculated by dividing total points earned by the total points possible and will be based on the following percentages:

Percentage	Grade
90-100%	A	Target
80 – 89%	B	Acceptable-high
70 – 79%	C	Acceptable-low
60 – 69%	D	Unacceptable
0 – 59%	F	Unacceptable

Classroom Policies: In class work can be made-up only when the instructor excuses students prior to class. You are responsible for the activities of each class period. Recognizing the importance of student participation and interaction with classmates, excessive absences will result in a lower letter grade or failure in the class.

Assignments: All assignments are due to be submitted on Blackboard by 10:00 p.m. on Sunday. Late assignments will not be accepted. The class name, your name, date due, and assignment number should appear at the beginning of each submission.

All writing assignments submitted should be final drafts and of quality you would feel comfortable submitting to a work supervisor. Only error-free documents will receive full points. Remember to always use spell check and above all proofread your work before you submit it. In the business world employees often have other employees look over documents prior to submission. Smart move!

Electronic Devices: Please silence your phones, and do not text during class. If you feel you must answer a text, please keep it short and not a “conversation”. Laptops are NOT permitted, except for taking a course test. I will have my cell phone on for campus emergency notifications.

Student Email Policy: Your campus assigned Dakota College at Bottineau email is the official form of communication for this course. Please check your campus email on a regular basis; you might want to link it to your phone. The liability for missing or not acting upon important information conveyed via campus email rests with the student.

Title IX: Dakota College at Bottineau (DCB) faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the college. If you have experienced any form of gender or sex-based discrimination or harassment, including non-consensual sexual intercourse, sexual harassment, relationship violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available. DCB has staff members trained to support survivors in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The College strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the College Title IX Coordinator.

Please be aware that all DCB employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as advocates, counselors, clergy, and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the College Title IX Coordinator. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the College's Title IX Coordinator. If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can find a list of resources on the Title IX website. www.dakotacollege.edu/student-life/safety/title-ix

Disabilities or Special Needs: Students with disabilities of special needs (academic or otherwise) are encouraged to contact the instructor of Disability Support Services.
