ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTION

- Only one test will be given throughout the semester, a final; it will be comprehensive and in an online format.
  - Failure to complete the final exam will result in an “F” for a final grade in the course.
  - Tests must be completed by the due date, or a “0%” will be given. Arrangements must be made TWO DAYS prior to when the test/quiz is given in order to make up test/quiz beforehand. You will not be allowed to take the test after the due date – NO EXCEPTIONS.
  - Taking tests with other classmates is unacceptable and considered cheating. If students’ test times overlap a “0%” will be given with no option to retake.
- Six assignments and six discussion posts will be assigned throughout the semester. These are to be written double-spaced in Times New Roman font, 12 pt. In the header, put the class and assignment label, the date, and your name; this is shown below:

AGRI 150 – Assignment #1

8-30-19

Your Name

- A weekly discussion post, of at least 200 words will be due every Thursday. By Saturday, you must respond to one classmate’s post with two solid points.
  - Key Point: In your first introductory discussion post on Blackboard write “I read the entire syllabus for AGRI 150, including the key point.” If you do not write this in your first discussion post, you will only receive half-credit.
- All assignments/discussion posts are to be turned in on Blackboard by the due date.

- All assignments are due one week after assigned. For each business day assignments are late, 20% will be deducted until the grades reaches 0%.
- One final project/portfolio will be ongoing throughout the course. The project will include an Ag-based resume, cover letter, and an overview of your future goals and aspirations.
- More detailed guidance and rubrics will be provided for each of the assignments.

If you have further questions or need assistance in using this great tool, please stop in the Learning Commons in Stevens Hall or contact Katie Peterson at 701-774-4594.

STUDENT ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Work submitted for this course must follow Student Academic Integrity as cited in the WSC Student Code of Conduct, p. 14:

- Acts of cheating and plagiarism are prohibited. Cases of academic dishonesty may be treated as an academic matter or as a disciplinary matter at the discretion of the instructor.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment. It includes using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.
- Plagiarism is presenting someone else’s work or ideas as your own, with or without their consent, by incorporating it into your work without full acknowledgement. All published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form, is covered under this definition.
- Self-plagiarism is the use of one's own previous work in another context without citing that it was used previously.
- The instructor may reflect the incident of academic dishonesty through the assignment of the student’s grade in the course. If the student has a grievance related to this action, that grievance would be directed to the Chair of the department in which the course is housed.

- Alternatively, the instructor may refer the case as a disciplinary matter to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs may refer the case to the Student Review Committee for action.

Breach of academic integrity may result in failure of the assignment, exam, and/or class.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- You are expected to read the relevant materials and participate in class discussions in a timely manner.
- You are expected to respect your fellow students and the instructor in online and on campus discussions.
- It is your responsibility to ask questions when you are uncertain about assignments or course materials.
- If you have questions concerning grades, you should contact the Instructor immediately. You are responsible for checking Blackboard in a timely fashion to ensure that the grade recorded is your correct grade.
- It is your responsibility to contact the instructor as soon as possible if you are encountering any issues that would hinder your performance in this class.
- You are responsible for earning your grade (with the instructor making every effort to help you learn the material).
- If you are concerned about your grade, you should speak to the Instructor NO LATER than mid-term. No consideration will be given to request to adjust your grade at the end of the semester unless there is an error in calculations.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

Occasionally, students are dissatisfied with some dimension of the course. In such cases, students should first schedule a meeting with the instructor. If the student and instructor cannot reach a satisfactory resolution, the student should schedule a meeting with the Chair of the Department. (See page 10 of the Student Code of Conduct.)

TITLE IX

Survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, and sexual harassment: please be aware that as an instructor, I am legally obligated to report all instances of sexual assault, domestic violence, and sexual harassment involving students. If you would like to speak to someone confidentially, please contact the WSC Counselor at (701)774-4212 (they are NOT mandated to report such instances).

FINAL EXAMS/ACTIVITIES

Students are required to take the final examination or engage in the final activity on the date and at the time presented as part of the course syllabus. Exceptions may be made only in emergency situations and in the case of scheduling conflicts with college sponsored events by promptly submitting a written request detailing the circumstances to the instructor of the course. Your meeting time for your final is: due Week 8 - online format.
