Important Things to Remember:

- Dual credit courses are college courses and are of the same high quality, cover the same content, and have the same rigor as courses offered at the campus.
- DCB awards the college credit. The high school awards the high school credit, per high school approval.
- Final grades are PERMANENT and will be on the college transcript forever.
- Students should expect to invest at least as much time out-of-class as in-class in reading, studying, and preparing for college course assignments.
- A syllabus is the guide to a course and outlines the expectations of the course.
- Students are expected to attend and participate in every session of all classes, for which they are registered. If students plan to miss class for numerous high school activities, they may benefit from taking regular high school classes rather than college classes due to the academic rigor and expectations for college courses.
- Students need to inform your instructor when they have a necessary excused absence, prior to the absence.
- If students have questions or concerns in a Dual Credit course, it is their responsibility to ask the instructor to determine what they need to improve to succeed in the class.
- There are no parent/teacher conferences.
- Parents should not contact instructors regarding course related information or issues, Instead, students are encouraged to communicate with the course instructor when questions or concerns come up.
- DCB is part of the North Dakota University System (NDUS), which has established the General Education Requirement Transfer Agreement (GERTA). This is an approved set of general education courses that are transferable between North Dakota University System institutions, North Dakota’s five tribal colleges, and one North Dakota private university. The transfer agreement is designed to improve student access to institutional degrees and avoid course duplication or loss of credit when students transfer within North Dakota. The agreement is located here: https://ndus.edu/lets-get-started/transfer-to-a-different-campus/gerta/.
Student Readiness

- Dual credit is a great fit for most students who show interest, maturity, and academic readiness, but it may not be a perfect fit for every student.
- Students enrolled will be required to attend and participate in their college-level courses. The academic work required will be demanding and professors will expect dual credit students to perform at the level of any other college student.
- Online dual credit courses require students to have strong organization and time management skills, self-discipline and motivation, and computer skills.
- If students do poorly on a test or assignment, they should not expect to repeat the work to improve their grade.
- In addition, instructors may not allow students to do extra work to bring up a poor grade.
- Students need to advocate for themselves. They should be encouraged to communicate with the course instructor or seek out academic support services as needed.

Academic Resources

- Academic Resources are available for all dual credit students. Please refer to the Student Support Services flyer below.

Books

- Books are required for most dual credit courses. A complete book listing and ordering information is located through the DCB Bookstore, at www.dakotacollege.edu/bookstore.

College Identification & System Access

- EMPL ID: This is also known as the Student ID. The first time a student applies for admission at a college within the ND University System, a unique identification number is generated for the student. The EMPL ID number is sent by e-mail to the address provided by the student when applying for admission for the first time.
- Campus Connection: The ND University System platform for registration, bills, grades, transcripts, and more. www.dakotacollege.edu > Campus Connection (top of page).
- Blackboard: The Learning Management System that houses all the online courses. Most ITV courses utilize Blackboard as a component to the course. www.dakotacollege.edu > DCB Online (top of page) > Blackboard Login.
- Student Email: All official communication will be conducted through DCB student e-mail. Every student is assigned an e-mail address: www.dakotacollege.edu > Email (top of page).

Complaint Process

- Students need to initiate communication with their instructor regarding any concerns or questions.
- If the concerns are not addressed, students should contact their high school counselor or principal.

Dropping a Class

- Any student wishing to drop a course must complete the Dual Credit/Early Entry Drop Form. Students must have their signature, a parent or guardian signature, and a high school administrator signature.
  - Return the form to Stacy Allard at stacy.allard@dakotacollege.edu.
- There is a deadline to receive a 100% refund. Refer to the dates listed above.
- If a student only drops one course after the 100% refund date, but is enrolled in other courses, they are still responsible for the full amount of the dropped course.
• There is no percentage rate for a single dropped course while still enrolled in other courses.

• Any total withdrawals (dropping all classes) after the deadline, may be eligible for a partial refund, depending on the date the courses were dropped.

FERPA
• FERPA stands for Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended.
• It is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their educational records.
• FERPA calls for the protection of student records once they turn 18 or attend a school beyond the high school level.
  o Dual Credit students fall under this classification.
• Students must complete a release form for records to be released to parents/guardians.

Midterm & Final Grades
• Midterm progress is reported in Campus Connection as a letter grade; however, the grade at the end of the semester is the one that is recorded on the student’s college transcript.
• Midterm and Final Grades will be sent via a secure e-mail message to high school counselors or principals.
• Final grades are PERMANENT and will be on the college transcript forever.

Student Handbook
• Outlines expectations, policies, and procedures for students:
