Due to the limited number of awards, students who meet the eligibility requirements are not guaranteed a Cultural Diversity Tuition Waiver.

Eligibility:

- 1) Applicants must meet one of the following definitions for eligibility under this program:
 - Enrolled members of federally recognized American Indian Tribes or have direct lineal descent and Alaska Natives and Villages as defined in the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act.
 - Be a member of a culturally diverse group who are defined as individuals historically underrepresented: African American, Asian American or Pacific Islander, Hispanic, Latino.
- 2) Applicants must be accepted for admission at Dakota College at Bottineau.
- 3) Applicants must be degree-seeking students.

Academic considerations:

- Past academic performance will be used in determining initial eligibility.
- Eligibility for renewal: student must have earned 24 semester hours per year and maintain good academic standing.

Priority is given to:

- Students with high financial need based on the results of the most recent FAFSA.
- First generation college students.

Amount of waiver/duration:

- Waivers will not exceed the amount of tuition. Tuition waivers do not include fees, transportation costs, application fees, books, board, room or other costs of education.
- Generally, awards will be made for an academic year, but can be made for a longer or shorter duration.
- Recipients shall be limited to a maximum of two years as an undergraduate student.
- Waivers only apply to classes taken on the Dakota College at Bottineau campus, Minot campus, and Valley City State University campus. It does not cover distance education tuition, online courses and collaborative courses.
