Hybrid Course

A hybrid course combines online, on campus, and video conferencing education. A minimum of one week per month, the instructor will be on campus and in the classroom. The other weeks, the instructor will meet the students in the classroom via video conferencing. Homework and quizzes will be turned in through the online class.

ONLINE – The online classes are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You may log on at any time and watch recorded lectures, interact in discussions, and turn in homework assignments.

On Campus – Students will meet in the classroom during your scheduled class times, the same as you would for any other on campus class. Lectures will be done in person and live via telecommunications. The teaching assistant will be in the classroom to assist the students and maintain the technology. STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO BE ATTEND ALL CLASSES UNLESS ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE WITH THE UNSTRUCTOR.

Why Hybrid – The hybrid courses offer a great deal of flexibility and options to the students.

Lectures - With the hybrid courses, the on campus students will now have access to all of the online recorded lectures to use when needing a refresher, and studying for quizzes and tests.

Homework – All homework will be turned in online. This allows for more interaction, discussions and learning while in the classroom, and makes grading easier for the instructor and students, as the students can access their grades at any time during the semester.

Discussions – Discussions will take place in class, but are also available in the online format.

Attendance – Even though everything is available online, it is IMPORTANT for students to attend class. The class lectures and discussions are the most important part of the learning process in this class. Discussions are also graded. So, if you aren't in class then you can't participate in the discussion, and you therefore can't get a grade.

Athletes and school trips – The hybrid class is excellent for student athletes and students with other excused absences such as field trips. If a student must miss a class due to an excused absence, they can access the class online and do all of the work online that week.

Excused absences DO NOT make it ok to turn in work late. The class material and homework is online and therefore can be accessed at any time and should be turned in on time.

Communication/Campus Email

All students at DCB are given a DCB email account. This account is how DCB will communicate with you. You will receive important emails about classes, financial aid, emergencies, school closures, important dates, etc. through this email account. Along with the important emails you will receive, it also gives you access to Microsoft Office software.

I WILL use your DCB email account for ALL communications with you. YOU are responsible for checking your email regularly. I will email homework lists, important dates, information on photo shoots, grades, etc. to your DCB account. You are responsible for knowing all the information sent to your campus email.

Along with DCB email, I will also use the “announcement” section of the Moodle class to communicate, so be sure to check it regularly.

Academic Integrity:

All students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity. Dishonesty in the classroom or studio and with assignments, quizzes, exams, and papers is a serious offense and is subject to disciplinary action by the instructor and college administration. For more information refer to the Student Handbook. Please note that I have a ZERO tolerance policy for cheating, plagiarism, and copyright violations.

Disabilities and Special Needs:

If you have a disability for which you are, or may be, requesting an accommodation, you are encouraged to contact your instructor and Kayla O'Toole in the Learning Center (228-5479) as early as possible during the beginning of the semester.

Title IX:

Dakota College at Bottineau (DCB) faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the college as a whole. If you have experienced any form of gender or sex-based discrimination or harassment, including non-consensual sexual intercourse, sexual harassment, relationship violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available.

DCB has staff members trained to support survivors in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The College strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the College Title IX Coordinator.

Please be aware that all DCB employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as advocates, counselors, clergy and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the College Title IX Coordinator. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the College's Title IX Coordinator. If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can find a list of resources on the Title IX website. www.dakotacollege.edu/student-life/safety/title-ix

Announcements:

You are responsible for reading ALL announcements. This is where I post IMPORTANT information that can and will effect your grade. Be sure to check it at least once a week for updates.

Late Assignments:

All modules are open for a week. They open on Sunday night and close on the following Sunday night. ALL work including homework, discussions, and quizzes MUST be done BEFORE the module closes. Late work will lose 1 letter grade per day that it is late. PAY ATTENTION TO DUE DATES and get your work in on time.

Grading Philosophy:

Please understand that I do not care about your grades, I care about your education. My job is to teach you, your job is to learn what I teach you, and hopefully more. If we both do our jobs, grades shouldn't be necessary.

The best way to succeed in my class is to NOT focus on - "what's my grade," or "what do I need to get an A?" - but instead focus on - "how much can I learn." If you embrace this, you won't be doing assignments for grades, you'll be doing them in order to learn, and the grade will become secondary and take care of itself.

Discussions

Discussions are a very important part of learning in this course. If you want full credit for discussions, then you must participate in the discussions. You will receive up to 25 points each time you post in a discussion for a maximum of 75 points. If you only post one time, you will only receive up to 25 points out of 75, which is an F. Occasionally there will be a discussion topic that does NOT require you to post more than once. For those discussions I will grade appropriately.

If I, or another student, respond to your initial discussion post, and ask you further questions in the thread, then you are expected to answer. If you do not answer, you will not receive full credit for the discussion or the assignment.

Also, please participate and comment on other people's discussions as well. This is a great way to discuss and learn. Keep your comments civil, appropriate, and constructive.

Grading Scale:

A (90 – 100%) B (80 – 89%) C (70 – 79%) D (60 – 69%) F (below 60%)

Attendance:

If you aren't in class, you aren't learning the material. Don't miss class! And, don't be tardy! Being late or being on time is nothing more than a habit. If you are in the habit of being late, this will be a good time to work on changing that habit to one of being on time. In the career field, being late is a just cause for firing employees, so if you are in the habit of being late, then you can use this class as an opportunity to work on changing that habit. However, I'd rather you were late, than miss class, so if you are running late, please come in quietly and take your seat.

Critiques:

Critiques are a crucial part of learning. During critiques, the instructor and students will offer feedback on your work. The following rules apply to critiques.

1. Be respectful!
2. Give positive and negative feedback. Positive feedback is important to learn what is working and to build confidence. Negative feedback is important because we cannot improve without it. All negative feedback should be as constructive as possible.
3. When receiving a critique, keep an open mind and don't get defensive. Remember, no one is attacking you or your work. The goal is to learn. You cannot learn with a closed mind or defensive attitude.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

ALL homework must be created for this class. You MUST create new work every week. Work created for other classes, or created in the past will NOT be accepted.

If I respond to your initial assignment post and ask you further questions in the thread, then you are expected to answer. If you do not answer, you will not receive full credit for the assignment.
